PROGRAMME EDITOR NOTES...

CELEBRATING 130 YEARS OF CHORLEY FOOTBALL CLUB 1883 - 2013

Welcome to Victory Park for our second friendly of the 2013/14 campaign. On Tuesday we kicked off our pre-season preparations with the annual opener against Preston North End in the Jack Kirkland Trophy. The Lilywhites as expected started strongly and came away worthy 2-0 winners. However at this stage of the summer results are of no concern, especially against a side who are four league tiers above the Magpies. New striker Josh Hine made a promising cameo appearance from the bench and we'll all be hoping to see more of him tonight. It was great to see a crowd of 1,116 and hopefully we'll get a good turn out this evening - especially if it stays sunny. I was brought up a Bolton Wanderers fan and had a season ticket for over 10 years, travelling home and away so this evening it's fair to say I'd like the game to be a hard fought draw. We are of course playing for the Harold Taylor Memorial Trophy and I have fond memories of H as he was known. I can remember at every game he would come up to me while I was taking pictures and whisper in my ear "Got a good one yet?" He is dearly missed by everyone and was a credit to the club. Enjoy the game.

GARRY FLITCROFT'S NOTES...

CELEBRATING 130 YEARS OF CHORLEY FOOTBALL CLUB 1883 - 2013

Good evening everyone and welcome back to Victory Park. I'd like to offer a warm welcome to the staff, players and supporters who have made the trip from Bolton Wanderers this evening.

On Tuesday we faced a strong Preston North End side and lost 2-0. A lot of positives came out of the game and our fitness levels were good. During the first 45 minutes we battled well against a Preston first team and it was a good work out for the lads. They've had a one game advantage on us but it was very pleasing to see us compete for the ball. The new lads settled in well, we kept our shape and overall it was a good team performance. In the second half I put some trialists on who have only trained with us for a week. Like I say, it's all about fitness at the minute and we gave a good account of ourselves.

I thought our new goalkeeper Sam Ashton played great. He swept and talked well for us and it was a good workout for him because North End are obviously a decent side. Tonight we host Bolton Wanderers which will be another good test for us. These games are all about first and foremost generating income for the club. They are great games to be involved in and we've got to be grateful clubs such as Preston, Bolton and Blackburn will come down and give us a game.

From our point of view defensively we've got a lot to work on because we don't see a lot of the ball in these types of games. That's how it should be because the clubs we are playing have paid a lot of money for players and they have the experience of playing higher league football. We just need to play to the best of our ability and create opportunities where and when we can. We'll work on aspects of the game we think are necessary to take into each match. It will be games against Euxton Villa, Salford City and Mossley where I'll be looking to see what real impact pre-season has had. Get behind the lads, they need your support.

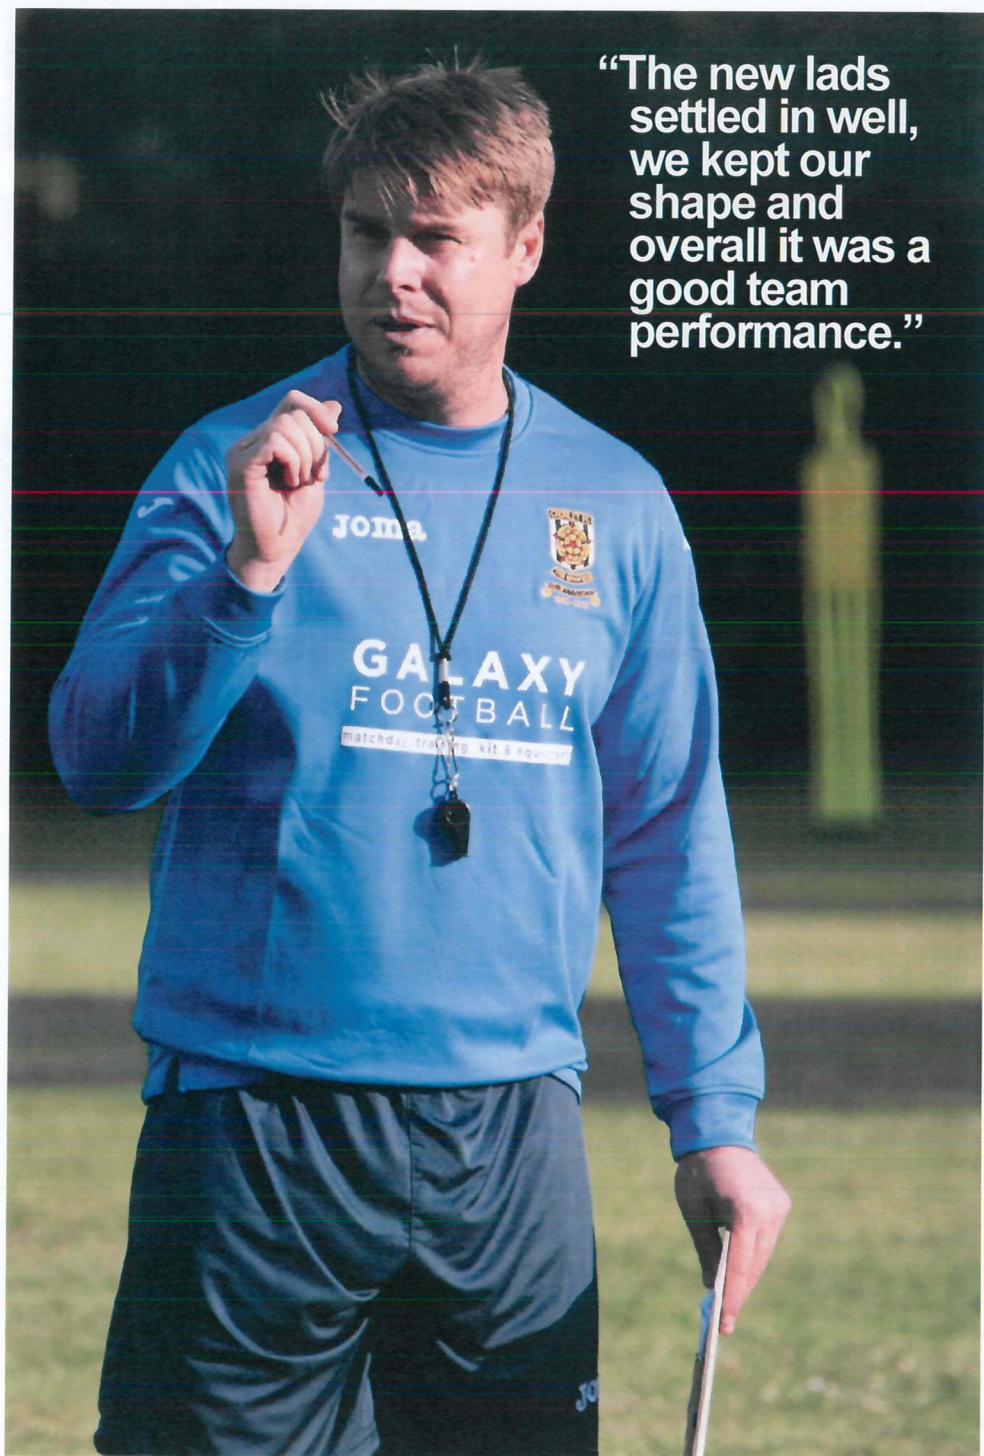

Enjoy the game

DAVE SWANTON WRITES...

CELEBRATING 130 YEARS OF CHORLEY FOOTBALL CLUB 1883 - 2013

Thanks for the emails, letters and conversations since my first programme notes on Tuesday against Preston North End. The potential of this club is incredible and the 'togetherness' is pretty unique in sport. Offers to loan possessions to be photographed for the 130 year brochure have been excellent so far so please keep them coming. We are now issuing press statements on a regular organised basis via as many media channels as we can including the clubs official website, twitter and facebook. The resource we have at the club to help make sure this happens is very special and with co-ordinating all press releases we will make sure that all our fans know what is going on and that there are limited leaks which whilst exciting for the person who leaks it is very annoying to members of the fan base who hear it through these channels. The whole fan base at Chorley is important and deserves to be told what is happening.

We are also conscious of making the whole game day experience an enjoyment rather than a chore. Parking is one thing that has always puzzled me at Victory Park yet with so many car parks within walking distance plus a railway and bus station ten minutes away, Victory Park is probably one of the most accessible grounds around, especially in the Evo-Stik. I always remember attending the Trophy Semi Final against Macclesfield. I brought the kids parked round the corner adjacent to the old Chorley Motors Club and picked up a parking ticket for my troubles! To live local enough to walk up is great, to come by train or bus is relatively easy but being able to park your car is a must. Rest assured we want to give our supporters the best game day experience possible and make sure they return and tell their friends too. Bolton

Wanderers are our visitors tonight and my memory goes back to a Tuesday night in 1979 when they used Victory Park to entertain a touring Malawi National Side.

I think I did the PA System on that evening and the likes of Peter Reid, Frank Worthington, Sam Allardyce and Neil Whatmore were gracing the playing surface. I can't remember the result but dug out my programme from the evening to remind me of the night. Were you there?

If you want to get in touch you can email me at dave.swanton@chorleyfc.com or you can write to me at Chorley Football Club, Victory Park, Chorley, PR7 3DU.

MIKE NEILD WRITES...

CELEBRATING 130 YEARS OF CHORLEY FOOTBALL CLUB 1883 - 2013

Needless to say it's a very warm welcome back to The Chorley Group Victory Park Stadium for this evening's attractive pre-season friendly with a Bolton Wanderers XI. We are delighted that the Wanderers have agreed once again to send a team here but there is a special reason for pleasure this time around. The teams today will be competing for the first time for the Harold Taylor Memorial Trophy, newly inaugurated in memory of our highly respected and hugely-popular club secretary, a 'giant' in non-league football administration in this part of the world over countless years, who sadly departed this life earlier in the year. We warmly welcome members of Harold's family who are with us this evening. And we welcome too our guest-of-honour John McGinlay, the former Wanderers' legend and Scottish international, who will make the trophy presentation after the match.

Tuesday's game produced the spectacle of a record invasion of the pitch by ten substitutes simultaneously as, with about twenty minutes to go, North End rotated the squad in its entirety. Quite a sight! Unfortunately for Chorley fans, it led ultimately to North End snatching a second goal from a superbly-struck free-kick in the last minute to leave the final score 0-2. The result, of course, is academic, as Garry also took the opportunity to give a run out to several trialists in the second half and there was much cause for optimism in the Magpies' overall performance.

BREAKING NEWS: The Northern Premier League fixtures released on Wednesday morning have given us a long trip on the opening day (Saturday 17th August) when we travel to Leicestershire to take on Barwell for the very first time.

Following the now usual annual pre-season tweaking of the non-league pyramid, Barwell have been moved from the Southern Premier League, after rising to prominence through promotion a couple of seasons ago with a very impressive playing record. We are then at home for two games which look very winnable on paper, entertaining Ashton United on Tuesday, 20th August and then Whitby Town on the following Saturday, 24th. So the excitement is now really building. Meanwhile enjoy this evening's action - and don't forget Manchester United are here on Tuesday.

A TRIBUTE TO H

HAROLD TAYLOR 1939 - 2013

CELEBRATING 130 YEARS OF CHORLEY FOOTBALL CLUB 1883 - 2013

Manager Garry Flitcroft talks about the memories he shared with former secretary Harold Taylor who sadly passed away in February 2013.

Harold was one in a million. It broke my heart when he passed away because I was very close to him since we met at Leigh Genesis. We created a bond straight away and even went fishing together on Sunday's. He was a kind hearted guy who loved the football club and the people involved in it. Obviously being secretary we spent a lot of time in each other's company and I was even by his side when he passed away at the hospital. There's a lot of work in a secretary's role which people don't see. Graham is doing it at the minute and he'll tell you it's a difficult job. Without moaning Harold loved his work and only got paid his expenses but wanted to be part of a football team. It gave him something to do and he loved his time at Chorley FC. We both lived in Bolton and he was an avid Wanderers fan. I'd go round to his house and take his dinner up during the week and we always had a chat and laugh. Sometimes we would also play golf together. He was genuine, honest and funny. It's a fitting tribute that tonight we are playing in his honour. I'm sure you'll see our lads put on a good account for themselves. All the players got on with Harold and respected him and if there's one thing they'll want to do it's win that trophy in memory of a great man.

Signing Keil O'Brien from Mossley last season.

Chorley FC players pay tribute to Harold Taylor with a minute silence before the game against Cammell Laird in the Dootson Sports Cup last season.

Celebrating winning the Lancashire Challenge Trophy with Mick Wearmouth in March 2012.

Kit Manager Jonathan Gains shares his memories of Harold Taylor.

I can sum up Harold in 5 words - generous, thoughtful, funny, kind and sometimes grumpy but above all a great friend and a fantastic man to work with. My first experience of Harold was when we worked together at Leigh Genesis; he was match day secretary and I was kit man. I didn't really get to know Harold much at this time however when I moved to Chorley FC we were re-united and this is when our friendship really took off, this is also when I really started to learn my trade through Harold's expertise and guidance. As I learnt he could be quite stubborn on occasions and once he made his mind up that was that, as I experienced many times during our first pre-season together. But we never fell out for long, as we used to sit down under the stand with a cup of tea and a biscuit and sort our differences out which usually ended up with us roaring with laughter and this is how our relationship continued over the years. It was a dreadful time when Harold told me he was ill and even worse to see him deteriorate but could still crack a joke and smile. The place just isn't the same without him. I still walk into his office under the stand and expect him to be there. I'll always miss my Tuesday night teas at Morrisons with him.

TODAY'S VISITORS...

BOLTON WANDERERS

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT THE TROTTERS

The club was founded by the Reverend Thomas Ogden, the schoolmaster at Christ Church in 1874 as Christ Church FC. It was initially run from the church of the same name on Deane Road, Bolton, on the site where the Innovation factory of the University of Bolton now stands. The club left the location following a dispute with the vicar, and changed its name to Bolton Wanderers in 1877. The name was chosen as the club initially had a lot of difficulty finding a permanent ground to play on, having used three venues in its first four years of existence. Bolton were one of the 12 founder members of the Football League, which formed in 1888. At the time Lancashire was one of the strongest footballing regions in the country, with 6 of the 12 founder clubs coming from within the boundaries of the historic county. Having remained in the Football League since its formation. The period before and after the First World War was Bolton's most consistent period of top-flight success as measured by league finishes, with the club finishing outside the top 8 of the First Division. On 28 April 1923, Bolton won their first major trophy in their third final, beating West Ham United 2-0 in the first ever Wembley FA Cup final. David Jack scored the first ever goal at Wembley Stadium. They became most successful cup side of the twenties, winning three times. Their second victory of the decade came in 1926, beating Man City 1-0 in front of over 91,000 spectators and the third came in 1929 as Portsmouth were beaten 2-0. From 1935 to 1964, Bolton enjoyed an uninterrupted stay in the top flight - regarded by fans as a golden era - spearheaded in the 1950s by Nat Lofthouse. On 9 March 1946, the club's home was the scene of the Burnden Park disaster, which at the time was the worst tragedy in British football history. 33 Bolton Wanderers fans were crushed to death, and another 400 injured, in an FA Cup quarter-final second leg tie against Stoke City. In 1953 Bolton played one of the most famous FA Finals of all time - The Stanley Matthews Final of 1953 but lost 4-3 thanks to the skills of Matthews. In 1958 Lofthouse scored two goals which saw them overcome Manchester United in the FA Cup final in front of a 100,000 crowd at Wembley. While Bolton finished 4th the following season, the next 20 years would prove to be a fallow period. Despite a new-look, much younger team and an 8-1 win over Walsall, Bolton's best league win for 50 years, they failed to win promotion in the 1983-84 season, and would remain in the Third Division for another three seasons. In 1986 Nat Lofthouse was appointed President of the football club, a position he would hold until his death on 15 January 2011. At the end of the 1986-87 season, Bolton Wanderers suffered relegation to the Fourth Division for the first time in their history, but won promotion back to the Third Division at the first attempt. The club won the Sherpa Van Trophy in 1989, defeating Torquay United 4-1 at Wembley Stadium.

Bolton reached the Premiership in 1995 and 1997 but was relegated twice. The club then got promotion in 2000/01 via the Play-Offs against Preston North End. They reached the League Cup final in 2004, but lost 2-1 to Middlesbrough. In 2005 Bolton finished sixth in the league. In the 2010 FA Cup, Bolton progressed all the way to the semi-finals, but were beaten 5-0 by Stoke City at Wembley. On May 2012, the club was relegated to the Championship by one point on the last day of the season. The Championship season started badly with manager Owen Coyle being sacked at the end of 2012. Dougie Freedman joined as manager and results considerably improved. Although on 4 May 2013 Bolton drew 2-2 with Blackpool, while Leicester City beat Nottingham Forest which meant Bolton would finish outside the play-off places.

MARK DAVIES | MIDFIELDER

Moved to Bolton in January 2009 after a undisclosed fee with Wolverhampton Wanderers.

STUART HOLDEN | MIDFIELDER

Joined in January 2010 from Major League Soccer side Houston Dynamo. Became the focal point in central midfield since signing and emerging as a huge fans' favorite at the Reebok Stadium.

CRAIG DAVIES | STRIKER

The Welsh international signed from Barnsley and has a proven track record for finding the back of the opposition net.

MARVIN SORDELL | STRIKER

Signed for £3m on transfer deadline day in January 2012. Scored ten goals in the first half of the season for Watford.

TOM EAVES | STRIKER

Days before signing for Bolton scored a hat-trick against them in a pre-season friendly at Boundary Park.

FROM A WANDERERS PERSPECTIVE

By JOSEPH GIBBONS

It is just short of a year since Bolton Wanderers last played at Victory Park. A youthful side travelled from The Reebok last time out and the same is expected this evening. The likes of Tom Eaves, Adam Blakeman, Michael O'Halloran and Jay Lynch featured for the Championship side last year as Owen Coyle looked to develop his younger players. The match was decided late on with a header from Adam Blakeman which handed Bolton a 1-0 victory. In the campaign that followed, Tom Eaves had loan spells at Bristol Rovers and Shrewsbury Town. His fast pace and energy helped him score 13 goals in 25 appearances in both League One and League Two.

Striker Michael O'Halloran also spent last season out on loan as he looked to gain more experience. The 6ft2 striker was loaned out to League One outfit Carlisle United, but he played only one match before opting to return to The Reebok. A more successful loan spell began in November when he joined Tranmere Rovers until the end of the season. The Scotland U21 international played 23 times for the Rovers, scoring 3 goals. Each pre-season sees a new crop of young players wear the Bolton Wanderers shirt. So what can we expect from the current Bolton side? After a successful FA Youth Cup run last season, the future of Bolton Wanderers is looking very bright. Victories against Portsmouth and Reading were followed up by an 8-2 victory against Tottenham at White Hart Lane before they were eventually knocked out at the Quarter Final stage by Nottingham Forest. The U21s competed in the inaugural Barclays U21 Premier League. After being placed in a group with seven other sides including Arsenal, Everton and Blackburn the whites struggled to win games. After collecting seven points and winning just once they finished bottom of the group. Despite the lack of success for the U21 squad, one player shone. 18 year old Chris Lester played 18 times for the U21s which led to him being named on the first team bench twice. Born in Salford, he recently earned a call up to the Northern Ireland U21 squad. The match this evening is part of a packed pre-season for Bolton Wanderers. They started their campaign on Wednesday evening when they faced fellow Northern Premier League side Skelmersdale United. Following this match they will travel to FC United, Chester and Macclesfield Town. It is likely that Bolton will rotate their squad regularly to hand match experience to their young players.

IAN BAGSHAW LOOKS BACK IN TIME...

CELEBRATING 130 YEARS OF CHORLEY FOOTBALL CLUB 1883 - 2013

The FA Cup Comes To Chorley

What a marvellous achievement by Wigan Athletic in winning the FA Cup this year. In the 1920s our opponents tonight played in the FA Cup Final on three occasions 1923, 1926, and 1929 and making history by winning in 1923 at the new Wembley Stadium. The new stadium at Wembley was due for completion in 1924 but was completed in early 1923 and within budget. The decision was taken to hold the FA Cup Final between Bolton Wanderers and West Ham United at the new arena. The ground capacity for Wembley was 125,000 and it was estimated that only 6,000 fans would travel from Lancashire to the Final. Little did anyone realise that an estimated 300,000 would turn up for the game on 28 April 1923. The game became famous as the White Horse Final after a policeman on a white horse was seen controlling the vast crowds, clearing the playing area so that the game could commence. The horse called Billie, was actually grey but appeared white on the primitive black and white newsreel footage. The 1922/23 season was also very successful for Chorley as they won the Lancashire Combination for the first time. A friendly game was hastily arranged against Bolton Wanderers and they brought along the FA Cup won only the week before. A large crowd gathered to see the cup and the players from Bolton. The Bolton team were announced and ran from the dressing room carrying the cup and received tumultuous applause. When the team had got half way round the pitch the Chorley team were announced and came out with their trophy which was much more impressive and much larger than the FA Cup. It didn't take long for someone to shout to the Bolton team "All that fuss and bother, travelling to London for a piddling little cup like that, you should have stopped in Lancashire and you could have won a proper cup like ours." Laughter followed, which of course Bolton took exception too. The friendly commenced and it was plain to see that no quarter was to be given. Every tackle went in hard and two of the Chorley players needed attention and had to retire from the game. The final score was Chorley 0 Bolton Wanderers 8.

Footnote - Bolton Wanderers beat West Ham United 2-0 in the first Wembley Cup Final with David Jack scoring the first goal after 2 minutes. In 1928 David Jack moved to Arsenal for the astounding transfer fee of £10,890 (£578,804). Not a lot of money by today's standards but this was more than twice any other transfer fee at the time.

Unfortunately I don't have any pictures of the Bolton or Chorley team with their cups but the photo above shows the Blackburn Rovers team of 1883/84 with The East Lancashire Charity Cup, The FA Cup and The Lancashire Cup.
